48 Years old

British

ARDS Grade S Instructor / Test Driver

Peter Felix is an experienced and well know racing driver having raced in many different championships and hundreds of different vehicles. Peter Felix first started out karting from 1985 until 1987 when he joined the ff1600 championship until he moved on to Saloon car racing.

With a wealth of knowledge and experience behind Peter he can offer coaching and mentoring to any drivers wishing to take that next step up. For example, Peter Felix has been mentoring 16-year-old Shanel Drewe throughout her time in the Michelin Clio Cup Road Series and she has since been announced as the Vice Champion.
